

“The Prince Gets A Princess” by Kirk Hunt

And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnathpaaneah; and he gave him to wife Asenath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On. And Joseph went out over all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:45 KJV

There is a saying, “God does not always call the equipped, but He always equips the called.” To fulfill his purpose in God's plan, Joseph needed to look, sound and live like a high-born Egyptian. Against expectation, Joseph's years as a slave, then a convict, equipped him to serve as Pharaoh's Chief Executive.

Perhaps you feel you have been denied the good things of life. Maybe you feel that the positive outcomes have been kept from you. God has a royal blessing in store for you.

Probably not a literal royal bride (or groom) but an excellent place in purpose. With an extraordinary space for blessing. God will inflict His best on you, as if from ambush.

His blessing will catch up to you. No matter where, or how far, you have traveled. The right time and place is where God says it is.

As prince Joseph entered his palace, God arranged for everything. Even a princess. As you enter your purpose in God's Kingdom, God will arrange for everything.

Think: God equips His servants for their call.

Pray: “Lord, equip me for Your purpose, in Your Kingdom.”

Copyright © April 2010, Kirk Hunt