

“Victory By Support Team ” by Kirk Hunt

And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, Brought beds, and basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse, And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness.

2 Samuel 17: 27 – 29 KJV

David and his loyal troops had escaped Jerusalem into the wilderness. They were cut off from provisions and equipment. Absalom’s mutiny was on the verge of success, without a sword stroke.

Valor cannot make food and water appear out of thin air. Courage can not provide equipment and gear. In this dark moment, David found himself and his men needing support.

Out of nowhere a tottering old man, a foreigner, and a backwoods farmer came to David’s aid. They brought food and provisions. They provided equipment and gear. Most of all, they brought hope and encouragement

God knows your circumstances. He sees your situation. God will not just abandon you.

God has arranged a support team for you. Men and women with a calling to support you. When you need it, they will bring it.

Think: God has a support team for me.

Pray: “Lord, help me to lean on those you have called to support me.”

Copyright © October 2011, Kirk Hunt