

“A New Thing” by Kirk Hunt

Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

Isaiah 43:19 KJV

I am prayerful that this new year is different. In every way. For you, and all of yours.

Last year may have been good. Perhaps you had great success and increase. This verse still applies.

I pray this year is different for you. I am praying this year is full of new depths in God and the Holy Spirit. I want God to re-make you in His image.

God has a plan and purpose for you. You have a high and powerful calling in His Kingdom. Seek your new thing.

Of course, God will not kidnap you. He calls to you. He waits, in His mercy and grace, for you to answer Him. With patience and loving kindness beyond human comprehension, God is eager to help you began your journey.

Your destination is a new and higher place in Him. He wants to remake you in His image, stronger, richer and more gracious than ever before. He has the means. Do you have the will?

As you start this new year, consider that God has a place, plan and purpose for you. If you have not yet, seek His will for your life. If you are already following His call, press in and get the change you are seeking.

Welcome to a new year. God is here, waiting to do a new thing in your life. For you and yours.

Think: God’s power can work a new thing in my life.

Pray: “Lord, help me to live as a new creation, in Your image.”

Copyright © January 2012, Kirk Hunt