

“He Is With You” by Kirk Hunt

Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

Isaiah 41:10 KJV

After answering the call, everyone hits that spot. The corner of limitations and exhaustion, is a scary-looking intersection. And it is a long way from success. Even the best of us question our purpose and mission.

Pause for a moment and reach out and touch Him. He is right there. Close at hand.

I wish I could assure you that angels will drop the very things you need in your lap. Instead, you will likely continue in hard work and True Faith™, as you continue your calling. You will continue your Kingdom building in His power.

His presence means power. There is clarity when God is close. Only peace can dwell in His presence.

The task is not any smaller, but His power remains greater. You will shoulder and move loads using the strength God gives. You will not fall, because He is holding you up.

Your purpose and mission remain the same. Your human limitations are not the end of the journey. The hand of our infinite God will see you through to the end.

Think: Your power will carry me through to success.

Pray: “Lord, help me to rely on You to finish my calling.”

Copyright © February 2013, Kirk Hunt

This devotional is a ministry of <http://devotionals.cadremenpress.com>.