

“He Removes The Opposition ” by Kirk Hunt

Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

Isaiah 41:11 KJV

I am always the most puzzled by the rage of the opposition. They see Christians as narrow and overly restrictive? I disagree, but why all of the rage?

Whatever their reasons, God promises that they will not be able to block you. As you live the Christian life in spirit and truth, you will advance. To your destination and work in building the Kingdom.

Keep in mind that you must be living and moving in His purpose. Your willful action contrary to God’s Word and purpose for your life puts you out there alone. His protection for your life requires following your purpose for His Kingdom.

As you flow in God, your presence can be convicting (not condemning). The silent witness of a man or woman seeking Him, can say a lot. Very loudly.

If your life draws opponents, do not worry. God is not worried about their anger or blocking actions. No one can oppose the plans and calling of God. No committee can vote down God’s anointing and purpose for your life.

Move forward in Him. Follow your calling and build the Kingdom of God. He will take care of those who would insert themselves between you and God’s purpose for your life.

Think: A Christ-like life overpowers opposition through His power, grace and love.

Pray: “Lord, help me to live like You, especially with my opponents.”
