

“Bring It” By Kirk Hunt

*“Bring all the tithes into the storehouse,
That there may be food in My house,
And try Me now in this,”
Says the Lord of hosts,
“If I will not open for you the windows of heaven
And pour out for you such blessing
That there will not be room enough to receive it.*

Malachi 3:10 NKJV

God rarely invites men and women to test Him. Knowing how fragile we are, He does usually dare mere humans. Still, in this verse, He throws out a challenge: “Bring it.”

Look carefully. There is no fine print. This is not a limited offer.

Test to see if you can out-give the creator of the universe. Try to exceed His credit limit. Check to see if He has enough to more than match what you have.

It may not be cash. Your blessing could be good health. Perhaps you will dwell in utter peace and absolute security.

Of course, you should give as an expression of your love and gratitude to God. After all, He has already given you so much. Still, he wants the opportunity to give you more.

Take the challenge. Make it your goal to push God to the limit of His ability to give to you. What have you got to lose?

Think: I may give first, but God gives best.

Pray: “Lord, I want to honor You with my giving.”

Copyright © October 2014, Kirk Hunt

This devotional is a ministry of <http://devotionals.cadremenpress.com>.