

“Power Mothering” by Kirk Hunt

*And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time.
And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.*

Judges 4:4-5 KJV

Deborah was just a simple housewife, except the entire nation looked to her for leadership. Scripture does not record that Deborah birthed any children, but she served as mother to a nation. On her word alone, an army marched and brought deliverance to Israel.

You may not feel like a power Mom right now. Early morning feedings, late morning laundry loads and mid-afternoon taxi driving take their toll. Still, you can be a powerful mother in Zion.

Take time to keep up your relationship with God. Extend your leadership to those around you. Do not be afraid to ride with the troops to God's appointments.

The modern nation needs power Mothers. We need women who are not afraid to follow after God. Don't forget to lead others to their divine appointments.

The only real qualification for mother in Zion is a heart that seeks to build God's Kingdom. That heart will lead you to bless and lead those around you. His power in your life will give you all the authority you need.

Think: You are called to be a power Mom

Pray: “Father-God, help me to be a Mother in Zion, no matter my age or place.”

Copyright © May 2011, Kirk Hunt